Baltimore, MD (October 29, 2008) — The results of the 2008 Baltimore area kosher survey conducted by Kosher Community Surveys LLC have just been released. The survey asked local consumers their opinions of Baltimore area kosher stores, restaurants, and bakeries. Overall winners are:

Best Kosher Restaurant:	David Chu's China Bistro
Best Kosher Bakery:	Goldman's Kosher Bakery
Best Kosher Store:	Wasserman & Lemberger

Other establishments with strong showings include: Accents Grill on the Atrium, Pariser's Bakery, Dunkin' Donuts, and Shlomo's Kosher Meat Market. Neil Rosenbaum, President of Kosher Community Surveys LLC, commented, "Interest in the survey by Baltimore kosher consumers continues to grow as the community learns about the survey process. With the launch of the KCS Partners in Customer Feedback program in Baltimore, kosher establishments have even another avenue to show their interest in customer feedback." Approximately 325 people participated in this year's survey.

The results of the survey are compiled and published in the final report that can be found on the company's website. The final survey report provides significant insight into the community's collective opinion on Baltimore area kosher establishments. The report is a unique resource for consumers to use in deciding which businesses to patronize. In addition, the results of the survey can provide restaurants, bakeries and stores with guidance on how to better serve their customers.
