

Press Release:

David Chu's China Bistro, Goldman's Kosher Bakery, and Wasserman & Lemberger Receive Top Scores In First-Ever Baltimore Kosher Survey

Baltimore, MD (August 23, 2006) — The results of the first-ever Baltimore kosher survey conducted by Kosher Community Surveys LLC (KCS) have just been released. The survey, conducted over the summer, asked local consumers their opinions of Baltimore area kosher stores, restaurants, and bakeries. The overall winners are:

- Best Kosher Restaurant - David Chu's China Bistro
- Best Kosher Bakery - Goldman's Kosher Bakery
- Best Kosher Store - Wasserman & Lemberger

Neil Rosenbaum, President of Kosher Community Surveys LLC, said, "The winners of the survey should be proud. They clearly work very hard to keep their customers happy with quality food and service."

The final survey report provides significant insight into the collective opinion of the community about Baltimore's kosher establishments. The report is a unique resource for consumers to use in deciding which businesses to patronize. In addition, the results of the survey can provide restaurants, bakeries and stores with guidance on how to better serve their customers. The survey will be conducted on an annual basis to provide Baltimore citizens and visitors a means to reevaluate any changes in the quality of existing and future kosher establishments.

The final report of the survey can be found on the company's website at <http://www.kosher-community-surveys.com/>. For additional information, contact Neil Rosenbaum, President, Kosher Community Surveys LLC, 202-550-8376 or email, neil@kosher-community-surveys.com.
